

2008 Needs/Opportunities through the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship in addition to those listed in our summer newsletter, Educomis.

---

AsYouGo Service Opportunities -- Some descriptions are not specific for security reasons.

Short Term Missions is a significant way to be a part of the ongoing work of CBF Field Personnel and Global Missions partners around the world.

You have the chance to make a vital contribution in others' lives and to challenge your worldview while physically bearing the presence of Christ.

You will be a part of carrying Christ's love to others, yet our hope is that you will also be changed.

Fill out the information form which will help us match your interests and skills to the needs on the field. If you have any questions, please call us at (800) 352-8741.

Individuals and groups seeking to serve through short term opportunities are strongly advised to purchase volunteer insurance. This supplemental insurance provides excellent coverage at a very affordable rate. For information relating to online insurance enrollment, contact Chris Boltin.

To enroll, visit the Adams & Associates website. Username should be entered as "CBF". Password should be entered as "VOLUNTEER". Once your enrollment is completed, CBF National will be alerted and sent an electronic copy of your coverage.

---

English Teachers/Professors, Project 37 - Middle East

Professional degreed English teachers/professors to teach conversational English to Middle Eastern University students. A great opportunity to build relationships with university students. When: Ongoing Length: 2-6 months

ESL Teachers, Project 68 - Southeast Asia

A team of 2-3 people are needed to facilitate the teaching of English to nursing students who are currently studying English. The volunteers do not have to be language teachers, but they do need to be native English speakers. They would be expected to engage students in conversation in order to nurture the students' English language skills. Possibilities include but are not limited to role-playing, games, directed dialogue, cultural lessons, topical seminars, conversational

English classes, and other creative approaches as well. When: Ongoing Length:
Flexible